Joe and Gail Riggs wish to send to John's family our deepest sympathies in your time of loss. Joe had so many good memories of he and John. Also, he was related to my Grandmother (Marie Cross-Hawk) I was at their a few times when I was very small. God Bless you all!

We worked together daily for many years. John was a man with the kind of integrity rarely seen these days. Intelligent, funny, and humble to a fault. It was my good fortune to have known and worked with John.

I worked with John for three years up to his retirement. We shared a lot of memories and a love for country living. He was kind and compassionate to all the people that he came in contact. He helped the people around him with their problems. He was a positive motivating force.. He rarely focused attention on his disabilities which were very challenging. He cared deeply for his family. I considered him to be a true friend. Mark V
