“ Love you Justus. We'll always have our Losantville memories...and the tutoring sessions! You, Justus, left vivid memories for so many, what an amazing man you had become. Your humor and teddy bear heart were constantly exhibited, leaving an aura that no one could resist wanting to be around. And, next to that silly, obnoxious sense of humor of your's, I was always in awe of the manner in which you treated women, particularly your mother, Cindy. Even in our adolescent years (I can't phathom that we knew each other for over 37 years...you were my first "brother"), I respected the way you honored your friends and family, but most evidently, the way you coddled women. You proved to many individuals that even when you make mistakes throughout your life journey, you can still prevail...and remain a loyal, compassionate soul. You touched so many lives. You should be proud. We all are.

It was an honor to be at your awesome, laid-back memorial service today. I have to admit that your funeral was actually the best memorial I have ever attended. Why? Because the funeral home was filled with belly laughs, hilarious stories, touching tributes, and compassion. I just know you were present, standing up at the front of the room...making silly faces and beaming with pride. At least, I like to think so, my dear buddy, my first roomie. Thank you, Justus, for being you. Autumn Rae

“ Cindy, Kim, Amanda & Brian

I know there's very little anyone can say or do to ease the loss of someone who meant so very much to you. But, may you find some comfort in the memories, and know that his friends and family loved him so very much.

My deepest and heartfelt condolences to you all.
