“ Dear Stevie, Sue Ann and families, Aunt Ada had been through a lot of happiness and in the end a lot of sadness. It points out the shortness of this life here on earth and the fact that all situations are out of our hands. She is now in very good hands and is with her maker for eternal happiness. Her family was so important to her and you never let her down. Thank you for all you did for her. These deeds will not go unnoticed. "He will reward each according to his works." Matthew 16:27,
