“ In this video there's a picture of me her and young Jason standing on a rope bridge in Tennessee. She got so mad at me and Krissy for making the bridge bounce up and down with her on it. Oh and she loved to pinch your arm too!

“ I remember Maw would call to talk to Kathy and I would answer the phone and ask her what she was doing and she would say setting on the porch fishing. So for Christmas that year I got her her own little Mermaid pink fishing pole. And she always had Popsicles for me in her freezer....or she'd give me a bag of cinnamon bears...so many beautiful memories...she was mom to me since my own mom passed so many years ago.....RIP Maw.....love you.....your favourite son-in-law. “ I remember when I was little I would spend all day at grannies house with majority of her kids and the grand kids. We would either go to white water and spend the day or just stay at her house all day. Granny had some great Halloween parties. Hay rides, apple dunking, you name it she went all out. I remember walking in to town with not much money but we always stopped and got French fries and a coke!
Granny I love you and miss you so much. I'd give anything to call you my graham cracker again any you would say to me Randi Lois I'm going to get you. Until then, I will think of you every day and cherish the memories you have made with us. I love you graham cracker with every ounce of my being!

I remember going to Richmond to the mall. Climbing the hills between target, the mall, and Kmart. Racing to see who climbs the fastest.

“ Mom was staying with us for a week and wound up getting snowed in. We needed milk and bread, Jason and I was going to walk to the store. Well of course Mom decided she was going too. We walk out the back yard Jason was leading dragging his feet as to make the path bigger and easier for Granny to get through was working fine til we got ready to go up the incline to road wouldn't you know TRAFFIC so yep you guessed it we had to stop. As we're waiting Mom sinks to her hips in a drift. Jason was trying to pull and I was pushing her backside. To no avail we were laughing so hard we couldn't get her out. Mom looks to Jason and says "I SHOULD HAVE STAYED IN THE HOUSE". We laughed so hard we were crying. Yes we did finally get her unstuck and made it to the store. Every time it snows I would call and ask "did you get stuck yet". Mom would laugh and say NO BRAT. I love you Mom and will miss everything about you especially your laughter.

“ My favorite memories are the family get together. Easter Egg hunts, 4th of July at Whitewater and Christmas. We all would laugh and joke together. No one was spared from being teased or pranked. Grandma smiling and laughing made it all perfect. Love and miss you Grandma.

“ I remember every holiday Grandma would put little figures like paper eggs or other events they had all of her grandkids names on them. We always had fun with her and she could always make it fun for everybody. I think that's why we are the way we are now.

“ I remember playing bingo. I would always steal her hot pink bingo marker and tell her not to be looking at my card. She got a kick out of that. It was really funny when granny would get set. How about that time when granny won the cover all all by herself. I remember the look on her face when she yelled bingo. she was so nervous she ended up dropping the money under the table. It will not be the same playing bingo without her.

“ Audrey was such a sweet soul. She cleaned my classroom several years at HES. We had many conversations about our families and life in general. Hagerstown lost a good one! Peace and comfort to the family. :-)
