“ We went to church w/ Sis.Barbara for a time and even though she had lost her eyesight, she always knew when I came in the bathroom. Maybe cause my little girl was loud, but she always had more senses than I did. She loved her family dearly and her church family as well. She loved the Word of the Lord too. She was in those church doors, rain or shine, sick or well! She's in God's arms now and we shall see her again! The Priests
