“ What a tragedy. He was such a wonderful, intelligent person. For the last twenty years whenever I would hear a Beatles song I would think about him, and I am sure this will continue throughout my life. My heart goes out to the entire family. ,

“ To the entire Dale family, please accept my deepest condolences on your loss. I can't express how important Bobby's friendship was to me. He was the most socially gifted person I've ever met and had his own unique brand of humor that can never be matched. He made all of us feel that we were his best friend. Even though he was taken from us way too soon, he etched a lifetime full of memories, comradery and laughter into my life. May the strong circle of friends Bobby brought together help us all get through this tough time. It was a true honor to call Bobby my best friend and the brother I never had. ,

“ It has been just over 3 months since Bobbys passing and it is just now starting to sink in. I still refer to him in the present and talk to him now and then. I also catch myself starting to call him on the phone. Music and a twisted sense of humor was our common denominator and I doubt I'll ever have that again with anyone else. I'm sure it will get better with time. Bobby and I could just look at each other and know what the other was thinking or about to say. Usually something smart-ass and I really miss that. He was literally the brother I never had. His entire family has treated me as one of their own since the age of 12 and there has been a lifetime of memories since then. To be at the Dale Estate back then was a rare treat, like some sort of " animal house" but funnier, and I will cherish those times forever. If it weren't for Bobby, I wouldn't have some of the dearest friends I have today. Sadly, it was his death that made me realize that. I look forward to sharing countless stories with Jacob one day, and letting him know how much his father loves him. Bobby always had a sparkle in his eye when he talked about Jacob. Hopefully his passing will serve as something of a wake up call to all of us, in that, we shouldn't take our time on this earth for granted, and if you love someone, let them know it. He told me and I told him and I'm thankful for that. To quote a song - "Suddenly you were gone, from all the lives you left your mark upon... I remember". Matt,

“ I will remember every time we played ball and went fishing, I know the one time it was storming at Scout and we stayed anyway and mom and dad came looking for us. We had so much fun together, i don't know how i will ever go play basketball or fish again without crying over missing you. Love you Uncle Bobby, Taylor,

“ I have watched by brothers tribute numerous times today and I cannot hide my feelings of sadness and anger. Bobby's potential was endless and this is why I am so angry with him. Bobby had more personality in one of his fingers than I could ever dream of having. Nobody has ever made me laugh harder than what he could. "Always keeping things real by playing the clown, now your nowhere to be found." I will miss you everyday for the rest of my life. I promise that I will do everything that I can to help Jakey D. The only comfort that I feel from his death is that I can finally stop worrying about him.,

“ I agree with Brian there will be no more worrying about him, he was like a brother to me and I loved him so much. I begged him to go back to school with me everything. All I care about at this point is the fact that I am going to have so many years of no shoulder to cry on that was always there no matter what time or place, no buddy to go fishing with, and no one to come over eat dinner and about how long the gravy was taking. All I can say is I am going to miss Bobby forever and he didn't keep his promise to me. Love you guys, Donja,

“ How, time passed by to quickly. I wish you were here. I really need to talk with someone. It's hard for me to even look at a fishing pole. I can always remember going to the lake to fish.. Every time you would fall in on accident or going after a fish. I hated it when you asked me to play Ryan Adams at your funeral.. Then I found myself doing so. I just wish you were here.Love,Adam,

“ Bobby was my most trusted friend. Everyone says you cannot choose your family, but you can choose your friends, I was lucky I didn't have to. I am going to miss him more than words can ever say. We did everything together, I don't see how I will ever be able to go fishing again, that was one of our favorite hangouts. We had made promises to one another to never leave the other one so soon, I guess God ignores promises and has left me minus my shoulder to cry on and my lifelong buddy and best friend. Until we see each other in the sky. I love you with all my heart Bobby. Love Donja,

“ Bobby was a great person and will be missed by all, his repeated ordering (9 inch pepperoni)at Dales Pizza will not be the same without him calling to have it well done & crispy. Our thoughts are once again with the family.Kyle & Lori Cross,

“ I worked with Bobby at Cinram for about 3 years. Couldn't have met a nicer guy. He was a lot of fun to be around. I remember going to a Cincinnati Reds game with him and a couple of guys from work and how we went down to where the players come out of the club house to leave. He was running around like a little kid trying to get some autographs all for his son. As I recall, he got 4 or 5 autographs. Even though I had not seen him in a few years he would come to mind. Especially since I work with some people that he grew up with and knew (Kevin Stone and Jeff Dale). You have my condolences on his passing. Todd Witter ,

“ I am truly sorry for your loss. I have only seen Bobby twice since high school but after watching the video it seems like yesterday. Bobby had such a great personality. I will always remember his smile and laughter which I am sure will live on through his son. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Terri (Dumford) Dawson,

“ I feel compelled as the oldest brother to write before its to late. I think of Bob everyday. I'm pretty sure there is not a day that will go by that I won't. Bobby gave so much to life, he had so much personality. He could make the youngest child or the oldest person be his best friend. It was a rare talent. Something that maybe none of us will ever know. Its very hard to be the oldest, you have to be strong. As much as I want to break down and cry I cannot, i have a mother, a brother, several children, a very special nephew and a ton of young cousins that I need to be strong for. Bobby was a very loving and very intelligent young man. He had a passion, sometimes that passion would irritate the out of me. He could be so loud at a game I would just want to smack him. No matter how you look at it, his loss was a tragedy of major proportions. He touched everyone he came in contact with. I will miss him as long as I live and no matter what things he did to cut his life short there will never be a day that I did not and will not love him.,

“ I check here periodically and found young Taylors comments. My darling little girl, this is the hardest thing I to have ever dealt with. I want you to feel much better than you do. Losing your uncle bobby was/is the hardest thing I have ever had to do. I just want you to know that Bobby would want you to fish and play ball and enjoy life. Bobby always enjoyed life and as much as his passing has hurt us all, we have to go on. Its hard for me to go in my mothers house and walking throug the backyard is nearly impossible. That is where I remember him most. It is the most unfortuante thing that Bobby is gone, feel safe in knowing that Bobby got more and gave more of life in his way to brief time on earth, than most of us could ever dream of if we live to be a hundred. Bob had a way to make us all feel comfortable and as upset as I have been with him, I never stopped loving him. As I wrote in our local newspaper, if you knew bobby he probably made you laugh, maybe harder than you ever laughed before. Keep those memories alive, I know I plan to. God Bless you Taylor, love your much older cousin, uncle, friend Brad,
