

Charles R. Miller

March 2, 1932 - September 5, 2023

Charles Robert Miller age 91 from Hagerstown passed away peacefully Tuesday, September 5th at Rosebud Village where he had recently resided.

Charles, fondly known as Charlie to most was born to Ruth Lilly Miller and D.L. Miller on March 2, 1932 in Union County, Indiana. He was a loving son, brother, cousin, husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather and friend to many.

He graduated from Mooreland High School in 1949 and married the love of his life, Marilyn Hawkins Miller on March 9, 1951. He often told people it was the best day of his life when he married his bride. He grew up on several farms in Union, Henry, and Wayne Counties.

He began his working career at Perfect Circle in the machine shop and went on to end his career with Dana Corp. as their International Business and Planning Manager. He retired in 1990 from Dana Corp. after 37 years and after traveling extensively in 34 countries throughout his career.

After retirement he continued to travel throughout the United States with his wife and family. He had traveled to all 50 states multiple times and visited every state capital building. When asked which was his favorite when visiting he always said, "yours of course". He and his wife Marilyn also had traveled to all 92 Indiana County courthouses. They enjoyed traveling to anything Presidential or historical related including birthplaces, boyhood homes, libraries, and burial sites. They visited many National Parks and created many wonderful family vacation memories.

After retirement he assisted with Disaster Relief for the Church of the Brethren and volunteered at Reid Hospital for 12 years. He and Marilyn built a second home in Florida and became “snowbirds” where they enjoyed many winters and visits by family members and friends. He was a Deacon of White Branch Church as his Father and Grandfather before him.

His hobbies included gardening, playing cards with family and friends, enjoying his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. He loved watching the Cincinnati Reds and Indianapolis Colts throughout the years as well as many other sporting events.

He was preceded in death by his parents, grandparents, brothers Leon, Daniel and John, great-grandson , Benjamin James Mackie and his beloved daughter-in-law, Mariellen Bell Miller.

He is survived by his loving wife of 72 years, Marilyn. His children Brenda (Larry) Austin, his son Bradley Miller (Myra Phares), and Bonnie Miller (Dave). His grandchildren Amy Ryan (Patrick), Dale Austin, Darin Austin, Karen Mackie (Brian), Daniel Miller (Ashley), Andrew Miller (Jenny) and Justin Sharp (Amanda). Step grandchildren Adrienne Miller and Andrea Wogoman (Danny). His great grand-children, Brookley, Haven, Adelaide, Brayden, Peter, Saida, Asher, Julius, and Charlie and step great grand-children Aiden, Eliza, Daphne, and Charlotte. Other family members include his many loving cousins (who were more like sisters) and nieces and nephews.

“ I am so sorry to be out of town and not able to properly pay my respects to Charlie and his family. I really hate to say goodbye to such a wonderful man. Charlie was essentially my boss when he chaired the BOD of Perfect Circle CU back in the 90's. It was an especially trying time for the credit union and for me as well. Charlie was the perfect servant leader for the time and circumstances. I witnessed his devotion and love for his beautiful wife Marilyn and their family every day that I was with him. There is no better man that walked this earth than Charlie. I will always miss him. Love and prayers for comfort to the family, Lisa Dykhoff
