“ What great times we had Snuffy! Sorry I lost touch with you when I left. You were the best in our little gang. Looks like you had some of your own taste of heaven here on earth with your family, you all look so happy. I'll keep them in my prayers.,

“ To Audrey and the Charles Smith Family, I was one of Charlie and Audrey's students in Sunday School and youth group at Chicago Corner over 35 years ago. They left a lasting impression on me. I am very involved in the church I attend and was at one time a youth group leader. I do this because of people like Charlie & Audrey be an inspiration to me. I can still remember picking apples and making apple cider at their house. I stopped by and seen them about 3 months ago. I had not seen them for several years. What a treat that was . They are such sweet people. I will always remember them both. Love You Audrey We will keep your family in our prayers. Randal Reese(Wilbur & Della's Son),

“ Though we have been estranged for so many years! It was always good to see you! I remember the fun times we had when younger and the things we had done that ultimately made us who we are. Your time was short on this mortal world, the impact you made on so many peoples lives. Will never be forgotten. To you Snuffy, My cousin, My friend! I will miss you!!!!,

“ I found Mrs. Craig's obituary in the paper this morning and was very sad to see it. I did not know her except for about 15 minutes about 2 months ago. I met her at Reid in the cat scan waiting room when my father was in for a scan. She was there to get one herself. She was forcing down that awful contrast liquid you have to drink. She offered to move when me and my daughter walked in, so we could sit together. We told her she was fine and began speaking to one another. Of course we loved her accent. She offered her story and I told her that I had had cancer too. We talked about how scared it makes you, and it makes you nervous about the silliest things. God sent her to be an Angel to me that day. I was coming up on my 3 month cancer check up and I was nervous. She reassured me that I was fine. I thanked her and told her that I wished her the very best as well. My daughter and I got up to leave when my father was done and I turned to say goodbye and told her it was nice to talk to her and she looked me right in the eye and said, "everythings going to be okay now, ok...ok" She practiced being an Angel that day and today she is. I am so sorry for your loss.,

“ I'm Richard, husband of Suzanne's only daughter Janet. I first met Suzanne, my new mother-in-law, at the wedding of Janet's daughter Jennifer. It was a magnificent wedding of a size and formality I found a bit intimidating -- what with my tuxedo and black tie. The wedding, and especially Jennifer, was beautiful and moving. I felt very outside and out-of-place until Suzanne and Webster came in, sitting at the table next to ours. Suzanne and I seemed to instantly like and understand each other -- her French accent and exquisite manners charmed me. Soon I was feeling like part of the family. I'll always remember her for that gift of inclusion and acceptance. I've always been extraordinarily shy -- but you know what? By the end of the ceremonies I was so alive and happy, thanks to Suzanne, that I asked her for the last dance and she accepted. For the first time in my life, I waltzed on a Grand Ballroom floor. That was seven years ago. Seven years of fine French manners. Thank you, Suzanne, and I know you're reading this as I write it. God bless you.,

“ Dearest Audrey, With deepest sympathy I watched Charlie's video tribute. His smile was so genuine!! You have both touched so many lives, more than you will ever know. I have such fond memories from my childhood of swimming in your pool every summer!! And of the great halloween party you had for our youth group!! I think my brother (Pat Burchett) ate more meals at your house than he did our own!! You are both wonderful people and a wonderful example to have had growing up. It's people like you that helped plant the seed of Christianity in all us kids, and I am proud to say, I am still following the Lord today!! God Bless you Audrey!! “ Charles is one of the best examples of what a neighbor should be. There was no doubt that he loved fishing and hunting but he also loved people as well. I hardly ever went by his house without seeing someone there visiting with him. He will be greatly missed by family and friends. Please accept our condolences during this time of loss. Tony, Cynthia Dilling and girls.,
