“ Precious momma, your gone way too soon . The Angel's where calling you home. I'll never forget how you brought me up to know Jesus and your love for him. Hiw you listened to Phipp6 gospel sing on Sunday mornings. I'll cherish each story of you childhood you told me with excitement and a twinkle in your eye & how you told me you don't have to have a lot to have happiness. Thank you for the flowers you put in the bathroom when I was going through nursing school because you knew I I loved Violets. Many thanks momma rejoice with grandma & grandpa 🍷💔🍷

“ My grandma was the sweetest women who was loved by everyone who knew her. She loved camping, traveling, fishing, gardening, gospel music, animals and sewing. She loved her family and God with all her heart and always made you feel so special. She was also preceded in death by her grandson Steven and his daughter. Sitting on her porch swing enjoying the birds and talking was my favorite thing to do with her, she always knew what to say. And as she always said it's not good bye, it's bye for now. ❤️
