“ My husband and I met Dan and Diana at Jim and Jack’s in Cincinnati one evening about 21 years ago. We met on the dance floor. After that night, we met at the same place every weekend for years. We became great friends. Sometimes, we would go to Halloween dances in the area or other places who had a dance floor. They even spent a few long weekends at our home. We always had so much fun together. After Diana passed, we didn’t get to see Dan too often, but still kept in touch by phone. We keep many special memories in our hearts for these two very special friends.
