

Debbie K. Hobbs

October 23, 1957 - March 18, 2025

Debbie Kae Hobbs passed away on March 18, 2025. She was born on October 23, 1957 near an US Army Base in Wurzburg, Germany. She grew up in Scottsburg, IN and moved to Hagerstown for her Junior/Senior year, graduating in 1976.

Debbie wore a lot of different hats over the years. Starting as a babysitter for many, then going on to teaching and co-running Sunshine Corners Preschool, as well as tutoring. She worked a lot with the younger generations of Hagerstown and viewed many of them as “her kids.”

She also served the community by serving on the Hagerstown Town Council from 1995-1999. Not only was Debbie the first female Town Council President, but she was the first female ever to be elected to the Town Council. During her time on Town Council she also served on the following town boards: Plan Commission, Airport Board, Park Board and Insurance Committee. Debbie also helped out with the Church Women United and the Hagerstown Thrift Shop for some time.

To know Debbie was to love Debbie. She loved to laugh, drink wine, spend time with her grandbabies, all things Wizard of Oz, her plants and was the proud owner of every book Stephen King has ever written. Debbie was also very creative and artistic. She was always willing to take on any craft or costume creation for anyone, and always nailed it, or found a way to make it work. She did not like winter, or any other driver on the road that wasn't her.

Debbie took her role as Mom very seriously. Her children's friends knew her as Mom; and that her door was always open, grocery day was on Thursdays, and the brown fridge in the basement would always be stocked with pop.

She is survived by her high school sweet heart of 49 years (husband for 44 years), Terry Hobbs, Daughter-in-Law Courtney Hobbs, Daughter and Son-In-Law Megan and Kyle Turner, Goddaughter Kacey Crowe, and bonus daughters Stephanie Roman and her favorite Elizabeth Bryant.

She also leaves behind her four grandbabies (who came a very close second to Elizabeth as favorites) Natalie, Tad, Reilly Hobbs and Nolan Turner. As well as many friends, family, and the numerous children she taught and cared for over the years.

She is preceded in death by her son Jamie Hobbs and niece Kelly Brown. What a wonderful, loud reunion they are having.

Joining her soon will be all of her plants if Megan and Courtney are left in charge of them.

Visitation will be 4 to 7 PM on Wednesday, March 26, at Culberson Funeral Home. Services will be at 1 PM on Thursday, also at the funeral home. Rev. Ray Armstrong will officiate. Burial will be in West Lawn Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers; donations can be made to the Anthony Christopher Munoz-Ridge Scholarship fund at Perfect Circle Credit Union.

“ I was blessed to be close friends with Debbie on Boatman Road and then when the family moved in to town! We lost count of the many preteen and teen slumber parties she hosted in the detached garage! We were a part of a large circle of giggly girlfriends who enjoyed school and extracurriculars together! We have stayed in touch all these years through cards and Facebook! I am blessed by our memories and her life! Live on in ways that honor her!
