Donnie, you became a big part of my life. You will be missed my myself and my family. We all thought the world of you. If I had known that you were gone my brother, I'd have been there with all my family to say goodbye and how much my family cared about you. To the Dance family, if any of you need anything, I mean anything my family and I will do all we can to help. If you need anything, call me. Bill Goodwin
