“ We send our love, thoughts and prayers! I am honored to have met Lorri briefly in New York and remember her great big smile and her funny story of taking the wrong train going deep into Brooklyn instead of uptown! I'm sorry for the loss and know how dear and wonderful of a woman she was through Diane, a loving wife and mom, daughter and worlds greatest sister! May you rest in peace Lorri.,

“ She played clarinet in the Golden Tiger band. She was always willing to lend a helping hand. It was in fourth grade that she taught me to knit. Her patience with me I will never forget. It's heartwarming to see all the pics of her with her best friends. They were by her side until the very end. In her fight against cancer, she was tough as nails. May our memories of Lorri Andrew Artman never fail. She worked in the x-ray department at Reid. Giving a warm smile to patients in need. The one word everyone uses to describe her is “sweet”. As a wife, mom, and friend she can't be beat. She was just a young girl when her mom went to Heaven. She couldn't have been more than six or seven. It wasn't that long ago that her dad passed away. They're all having a beautiful reunion this very day. RIP Lorri, until we meet again.,

“ Louie, Pam and I are so sorry to hear of Lorri's passing. She fought an incredibly courageous battle. We first met her over 30 years ago playing Space Invaders at Howard Johnsons in Richmond, IN. We always looked forward to seeing her. Then when I started at Hoffco and became friends with you, it was so nice to realize she was your wife. There are so many great memories of you guys and Halloween too. I realize there will always be a large hole in your heart but want you to know your family and friends will be there to help fill it. You are in our prayers, with love, John Hedges Minneapolis,

I will miss you my friend. If you see a short little lady with brown hair that answers to the name Freda, that's my Momma, give her hugs for me. I told her you were on your way Monday evening :-). “ A few more lines to add to the tribute I left earlier. In her spare time she would fight fires. Just one more thing about her that I admire. She leaves behind a brother, John, and Diane, her sister. Both of whom will surely miss her. For 26 years Louie Artman was her spouse. So sad that he will now be alone in their house. Lindsey and Lucas are the children she leaves behind. I pray to God that solace they may find.,
