“ Eddie was my best friend as kids growing up in Hagerstown in the 1950's. We spent nearly every day together, playing baseball and basketball in someone's backyard. I always knew Eddie had my back. News of Eddie's death brought back strong memories of those wonderful days.

“ When i think of Eddie I think of the book Boys of Summer. Eddie was a part of those boys in the 50's: Max Brown, Bobby, Eddie, myself and Randy Rhoades. Eddie was delt a bad hand, but he played it out as best he could and had fun along the way, and there is dignity in that. No doubt a Cubs fan to the end. Try as we did, we could never make him a Reds fan. Condolences to Sheri and Bob.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to BOB/SHERI WEAVER and extended families. May you sense God's presence as you walk this path. I can remember times Eddie would visit our home with Bob and was always pleasant and wore a most beautiful smile.
