“ I am so glad I was able to interact and know Eloise. She was someone I enjoyed sitting with and just talking or giving her the snacks I knew she would run off with. I enjoyed listening to all your stories and getting to know your family. My heart goes to Mr. Beeson and his wonderful family because you always made sure she was doing okay.,

“ Hello my name is Sarah Beeson and firstly of course my sadness for the family of Eloise . A lovely photo. I live in the UK and hoped you do not mind my saying that Eloise is so incredibly like my Auntie.....my fathers sister Sheila Beeson. My father was Graham Beeson. I think of you at this difficult time. Regards Sarah.,

“ Dear Margorie, Wayne and I are deeply sorry for your loss. Theresa had emailed me the information about Reggie's tribute we were deeply touched to see what a beautiful life and family he had created. Through all of those photos we could see that he was a devoted husband, father and grandfather. We have only had the pleasure of meeting with you both a few times, but I feel that we know you both so well through Troy and Theresa and exchanging of Christmas cards. I hope that you will find comfort in knowing that Reggie is now at peace with our Father and is embracing you and your family from the heavens above. Please know that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. The Lusardi Family - Wayne, Jayne, Eva, Nichoas & Baby.,
