

Earl Goble

September 12, 1942 - May 5, 2013

Earl Ray Goble, 70, of Losantville, died Sunday, May 5, 2013, at ReidHospital, Richmond. He was born in Richmond on September 12, 1942, the son of Donald and Esther (Kindley) Goble, and was a life long resident of Wayne and RandolphCounties. Earl served wi

Tribute Wall

TB

“ We will miss YOU and your life stories Gramps! We really enjoyed visiting with you every summer and riding in your back yard on your golf cart!,

Tre-Cody-DJ Brown - April 14, 2015 at 12:00 AM

JR

“ Thoughts and prayers to the family, he will be missed in our neighborhood.,

Jim Barber and Mindy Rhodus - April 14, 2015 at 12:00 AM

MP

“ Thoughts and prayers to the Clark family.,

Misty Poynter - April 14, 2015 at 12:00 AM

TC

“ the past few years, I have gotten to learn about this man that I had grown up just thinking of as 'grandpa', I heard stories about working on farms, delivering mail on horseback, working in a coal mine....walking miles just to see grandma....one of my favorite, is of him coming home from work (and the bar) and picking up a kid named Mike, who was hitch hiking to Greens Fork, to see his girl friend, not knowing then that Mike would end up marrying his girlfriend, Donna, my mom's sister. I now know where I got my work ethic and my sense of right and wrong, it doesn't matter what your personal feelings are....you still do the RIGHT thing. As he aged, he became more stubborn (if that is possible, for a Clark) never wanting to burden anyone, he insisted and succeeded on doing most things for himself. I will miss my GRANDPA so much, I will especially miss my "HAPPY BIRTHDAY!" call in the morning, followed by him asking if its my b-day or my dad's.....RIP,

Tammy Clark - April 14, 2015 at 12:00 AM

JS

“ RIP.....Hope Mom and You are reunited someday.,

Judy Scott - April 14, 2015 at 12:00 AM

BC

“ Although I am not Shorty's biological "granddaughter" he always made me feel like I was. I am going to miss his stories and him telling me not to let my motorbike get me down...because it will hurt you!!! Love you Grand Pa.,

Becky Clemens - April 14, 2015 at 12:00 AM