“ I met Haily in summer of 2011. She was visiting her dad in NC for first time since he moved. We instantly hit it off. We talked as if I had know her , her whole life. For the next four summers she became like one of my own. I wish I had more pictures of the memories we created. I got to see glimpses of the woman was to become. Though after her dad passed distant was in the way and life. Though her and I became more in contact through texts after the birth of her baby boy Wesson. She shared those precious moments with me. I had just spoken to her two days before she passed. We shared how we need to see each other so I could meet him. Haily you will always be loved , remembered and missed. Fly high beautiful baby girl til we meet again.
