“ I fondly remember Helen's devotion of being an officer in Hagerstown's chapter of Eastern Star; and, especially, her diligence as part of the Kitchen Committee that prepared and served the Rotary lunch every Tuesday.

“ Helen and my mother Nancy Raffe Jackson (1906-1997) were first cousins as their mothers were sisters. Helen possessed a soft voice and sense of humor plus a good memory for family history. When we Raffe cousins would gather in the Richmond area, not often enough, we'd include Helen and she solved one family riddle for me. Blessings and peace to the nieces and nephews. Hold fast to the times you were together, I will.
