“ J was a good man and I enjoyed spending time with him. My favorite memory was going with him to Chicago to pick up a Corvette he had bought. When we were coming back we stopped at a gas station to get some gas and the owner come out Admiring the vet and ended up buying it right there on the spot. J and I come back with money but no Corvette. Another time was when he Had Me drive Georgia down to Texas to Tom's place and then flew me home.
They both are good memories and both are missed.
