

Ronald Huff

August 3, 1938 - May 28, 2012

Ronald L. Huff, 73, died Monday, May 28, 2012 in Reid Hospital. He was born in Dublin on August 3, 1938, the son of Foster and Maxine (Silence) Huff and lived most of his life in the Hagerstown area. Ron was a 1956 graduate of Cambridge City High School, ha

Tribute Wall

MM

“ To the entire family, Sorry for your loss. He was a great person! One of the biggest fighters I have ever met. I know he will be missed greatly! Hope all is doing good. You are all in my thoughts!,

melody may - April 14, 2015 at 12:00 AM

CB

“ I was very sad to hear about you loss. Ron was a very good and nice man. I took a family trip with the Staubles up to Lake Webster one year and Ron and Thad both TRIED to help me learn to water ski!!! Not sure who laughed harder when I was drug several yards underwater because I wouldn't let go of the rope, Ron or Dick!!! He made that a very fun and memorable weekend for me! Sharon and family, my thought and prayers are with you. Ron has gone on to a better place. God Bless You all!,

Carrie Johnson Bell - April 14, 2015 at 12:00 AM

MB

“ Dear Aunt Sharon, Cousin Kip, and Cousin Thad, Erik and I are thinking of you and keeping you in our hearts. We are so sorry that we could not be there with you. I have very fond memories of Uncle Ronny. Mostly of his laugh and his great hugs. Sending much love!,

Merideth Block - April 14, 2015 at 12:00 AM

CQ

“ I truly offer my sincere condolences. Loosing someone dear to you is never easy and one may ask theirselves, "even if it's for one day, could I see them again?" Well, what do you think? Can you see them again? Some actually say yes; since, at Acts 24:15 of the Bible reads, "There is going to be a resurrection." What that can mean for you is peace of mind. 2Corinthians 1:3,4 shows how one can gain comfort when someone dear to you passes away. Hebrews 2:15 helps release one from any morbid fear of death. Also, John 5:28,29 offers a real hope of being reunited with your loved one(s) again. As comforting as these scriptures are, you may think can we really believe what the Bible says? The answer is yes, for at least three reasons and if you can, please look up the scriptures in your own Bible too, (if you don't have a Bible you can download the whole Bible for free at www.JW.org and please feel free to download, read articles, watch videos, hear music, and be invited to events that will also be encouraging for you and/or the family and friends, for these are for people of all ages) The three reasons are these: God is the Creator of life. The Bible calls God "the source of life." (Psalm 36:9; Acts 17:24,25) The One who gave life to all living creatures is certainly capable of restoring life to someone who has passed away. Plus, God has resurrected humans in the ancient past. The Bible reports eight instances of humans-young, old, male, and female-who were brought back to life on earth. Some had been dead for a short while, but one had been dead for four days-John 11:39-44. Also, God is truly eager to do that again. Just think God is eager to raise your loved one up again and reunite them with you. God very much hates death; he views it as an enemy. (1 Corinthians 15:26) He has "a yearning" to conquer that enemy, to undo death by means of the resurrection. He longs to bring back those who are in his memory - Job 14:14,15. I hope this offers at least some relief and comfort for you and those whom grieve with you too. May your days be happy, full of purpose, and full of hope as you wait, because as the Bible shows, you can be reunited with your loved one(s) again. If you have any questions or would like any support please go to the www.JW.org website for it has great and valuable information, even activities for you and/or the family. With Deep

Sympathy, Ciarra,

ciarra quarles - April 14, 2015 at 12:00 AM

BG

“ andrea and family you are on our minds and in our hearts during this time in which you let your mother go may you feel God’s loving embrace around you peace and blessings, brandy and your ivy tech nursing cohort group - April 14, 2015 at 12:00 AM

JC

“ All the former scouts of Troop 2 morn his passing. He had a profound influence on all of us. I'm now a scout master and often ask myself in many situations "What would Mr. Huff do or say?",

Jon Carrico - April 14, 2015 at 12:00 AM