“ Fred was a special uncle. I loved him very much. He was always the same no matter what was going on. His sense of humor could make any one laugh. He was a good honorable man. I will surely miss talking and laughing with him on the phone, but he is home with our Lord "JESUS" and all his family who went before him. Rest in Peace, Uncle Fred.

Although the Sun has set for your life on earth, those that loved and love you still, continue to recall with fondness, those moments that they shared with you.

Some of these memories might bring tears to their eyes, however, they also bring a small smile to their faces when those tears stop.

May I say a prayer to those who continue to share that love. May God continue to bring a warmth in the hearts and minds of those family members. May the memories they share with the next generations become ones that will be written into your families Book of Life. May God Bless your family as they celebrate your life.
