“ I met Janice when she would come to Muncie to stay with her son, Larry -- my 'across the street' neighbor.. She was such a warm, friendly and gracious lady and I feel privileged to have known her.. She shared many hostas from her garden with me and I will always remember her kindness as I see them grow. Heaven just received another beautiful Angel and she is resting in the presence of the Lord. May her family remember her with peace in their hearts.
