“ Jayne, Phyllis and Brian and family, so sorry to hear the loss of Jerry! Your family was always a special family. I remember new year eve at your house and the beautiful Christmas trees that you had in your home. Jerry was a kind person and seemed to always laugh easily. I always thought it was extra special how kind all of you were to Grams. Another great person that will be miss!! Now he will have a new body and the rest of his life without pain and suffering. My heart goes out to all of you. I sure miss the good old days with family! Love to you all!

Jerry was a special person , he kept us girls in Shipping Dept. laughing at his stories. We loved it the time he came in with both hands attached to wooden placks , he had fell off the roof of his house, while painting it and broke both wrists!! His wife was with him and he said, I can't do any thing and Phyllis laughed and said, No, I have to do everything for him and I do mean everything!!!!!!! We all had a laugh about that one and another time he told us that at Halloween, he borrowed a womans fur coat and took off all his clothes and climbed out a Window and went around to front door and knocked and when Phyllis came to the door and opened it, he opened up his coat (showing nothing on but it) and said Treat or treat and he said she didn't know him!!!!!!!!!! He had on a false face too!!!!!! We had a laugh about that one! He kept us entertained alot. Never a dull minute when he was around!!!!!! there was 4 of us woman working in the office, when Jerry was a Piston Ring Packer to be shipped out!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Pat:

Dad enjoyed working with you gals. He always shared with us the funny things that he did to all of you and how you got him back for the pranks that he pulled.

Yeah, we remember the broken wrists. He was finishing up the last of the painting of the house the day before we were to leave on vacation. Our plans changed, but we did have a memorable time going on short drives nearby instead. We all had jobs to do to help take care of him until he got the casts off and yes, Mom did have do a lot of things for him during that time.

On the Halloween incident, it was the other way around. She borrowed the coat from my grandmother. He didn't recognize her. You'll have to ask her about the rest of the story. (-:
