“ My Dad was a guy that liked to have a good time. He was so much fun growing up! He took us to amusement parks every summer, and it was all about riding the next roller coaster. Everyone else was afraid, so I was his partner. Sometimes it would scare the heck out of me, and he'd laugh so hard. Once he talked mom into all of us riding one at Kings Island. It was not a good idea, my brother almost fell out...he was too little...and mom almost had a stroke. My poor dad felt really bad about it, but years later we'd get a charge out of reminding mom about that ride. Anyway, daddy always took us somewhere. We had nice vacations, but his favorite thing to do was hop in the car and go for a ride. Who knew where we were headed, we just drove. He'd stop at a little store and buy picnic foods so we could pull off somewhere to eat and burn off some energy. He was always like that, just wanting to "go". Just before daddy got so sick, he drove over the road as a courier. He loved that job. He traveled all over the mid west and east coast. He always had a story about someone he'd met, or something he'd seen. Hopefully in heaven you get to be on the go alot, because that's what makes his heart sing. The last few years were a little lonely, because of being ill. I hope with all of my heart he's busy and catching up with all the folks that are already in heaven. Knowing my dad, he's got 'em running around having a great time! ,

“ Hello Shirley, this is a voice from the past. I view these videos periodically to see if I know anyone. Since I live in SC it helps me to kind of keep in touch. I thought your husband looked familiar to me. When I looked at the pictures, I knew it was you. I am sorry for your loss. I trust that our Heavenly Father is comforting you at this time. My prayers and thoughts are with you and your family. love, Vikki Tackett

“Daddy, I really miss you. I wish you could read this and give me a shout on the phone like you always did. Your little buddy Jack is doing alright. He's gotten kinda skinny though. I've been taking him to Pat's to play with Buddy and Daisy. He has over night "doggy slumber parties"! ha ha I never imagined how hard this would be. It's difficult, your 64th birthday just passed. You were one of my best friends, and there is such a huge void in my heart. Everyone says it will get easier, I'm just not sure how. Atleast you aren't in pain, that's the only comfort in this. I believe you had a good life, I hope you did. You were a good friend to everyone you met. You took care of everyone, family and friends alike. I miss you smiling at me, I have a picture of you on my desk and today was the first time I looked and actually smiled back at you free of tears. There were so many good times, and you were absolutely the very best dad I could of hoped for. I love you. Lisa aka "Freckles",
