“ Jewell was a huge force in my life as a youngster! We were neighbors and she allowed me to stay with Robin, Kevin, and Keith while she worked. So many great memories. Love and prayers to you all. My sincerest condolences.

“ She introduced me to my husband via a blind date. She was his classmate. I worked with Jewell at Reid Hospital. I said no blind dates and she wore me down Paul and I were married 50 yrs.

Jewell was one of my neighbors. I didn’t see her too often, but enjoyed talking to her when I did. She was so nice to me, and I am truly sorry for your loss.
