“ My brothers and I grew up with you kids in Economy. Joe and Cindy the closest in age to Jimbo and I. We had so much fun. Things sure were different back then. Joe was a quiet boy but he shared in all the antics we could think of. Sledding, crawlading, baseball, the 8 ft hole swimming, parades, we had a great small town to grow up in. Keeping you all in my prayers. So sorry for your loss. Jayma (Dill) Randolph

“ In loving memory of my brother Joe. He was a humble person whose passion was family, friends, and "all things" nature. Memories of our childhood are flooding like rivers that have just thawed from a winter freeze. Even though we live far apart you were and always will be in my heart. I love you Joe! Your sis, Cindy
