

Judith M. Clock

March 24, 1943 - May 21, 2022

Judith (Judy) M. Jones) Clock, 79, passed away on Saturday, May 21, 2022 at Reid Hospital with her family by her side.

Judy was born on March 24, 1943 in Fayette County to Floyd and Helen (Moody) Jones. She graduated from Connersville High School and later earned her bachelor's degree in education from Ball State University. She worked as a special education teacher, an insurance agent and was eventually employed by the Indiana State Police which she retired from in 2003.

Judy married Joseph W. Clock in 1980 and they spent most of their years together living on their farm in Wayne County. She loved her Longhorn and Watusi cattle, horses, and all the other farm animals. She also had a great passion for oil painting and sewing.

Surviving family include her husband of forty-three years, Joseph W. Clock; her children, Gary Cox (Sheri), Lisa Bevans (Tim), step-daughters; Teena LaVoie, Jaci Simmons (Todd), sisters; Cheryl Jackson (Jack), Donna Farler (Jim), Janette Weldin (John); eleven grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren. Also surviving is her former spouse and father of her children, Leslie Cox (Cheree).

In addition to her parents, Judy was preceded in death by her sister Juanita Glass.

In accordance with her wishes, there will be no funeral or visitation. A graveside service will be held for close family and friends at West River Friends Cemetery, located behind the West River Friends church, 10636 Lacy Road, Economy, Indiana at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 28, 2022.
