“ Although I'm sure you've never heard of me, I wanted to extend my condolences to Kim's family and friends. I attended Northwood and met Kim there. He was friendly, well-liked, and respected. My favorite memory of him involved painting my dorm room. I was given permission to paint, and Kim agreed to help. I have never forgotten watching him stand flat-footed painting the high spots where I couldn't reach. Praying for peace and comfort for all of you. Jeanne Ann Graham

“ I met Kim while being the manager at Round Barn Shell, he owned the tractor dealership down the road so I seen him probably nearly everyday. After getting to know him we would tell my employees and customers that he was my little brother, anyone who knows me I'm only 5 foot tall and that's a stretch. The looks we would get and the mouth's that would drop open. We loved playing that joke on people. I'm so sorry to hear of Kim's death but our loss is heavens gain as I know he's up there looking down as I write this probably laughing at the memory as I am. Godspeed my little brother I'll see you again some day.

“ I never will forget the day Dad dialed Kim’s number on the phone and said, “Negotiate the purchase of the new hay bind.” Kim was kind and was part of a great, business lesson for a 16 yr old, farm boy. I know that he and Dad will soon discuss machinery, but right now they are in awe at their Savior’s mangled feet. I’m jealous and look forward to joining them there.
