“Wow. I didn't even know she was having this battle. I worked with Vicki for about 3 years at Rihm's and she was wonderful. Unfortunately, I haven't seen her in several years. I loved working with her. She was such a hard worker and never failed to have a smile on her face (even with the customers that she didn't particularly enjoy, haha). And I loved her laugh. What a neat woman. I am so grateful that I was able to spend those years with her. She taught me a lot of things that I've been able to apply to my life as I've grown older. I regret that I will be unable to attend her service as I am attending other services at the same time. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. Vicki will be greatly missed but she touched so many lives while she was here with us.,

“ I worked with Vicki (Pookie) for many years at Rihm's. She was such a genuine person, and had a heart of gold. She could brighten anyone's day with that awesome laugh. Her family and pets meant the world to her, as she talked about them often. May all of her friends and family be comforted by having such great memories of such a wonderful person.,
