“ Growing up down the road from Laneal, and being a few grades behind him in school he was always friendly, kind, and shared his time with us younger kids. Always willing to include us in whatever game was going on the school playground at Millville first, and then Hagerstown. At varsity basketball practice and game time “Big Ed” was a rock; handling the other teams opposing center, who were usually bigger, with what appeared to be ease, but really was because he was just so “country strong “! Growing up, Laneal was always a great role model!

Go high on that mountain and rest easy good man.

Jeff B. Smith, a childhood neighbor and friend.

Didn't know him...but remember passing him in the hall from school. Mountain of a man, he was quite the physical specimen. By all accounts he was a nice guy. Sorry he passed so soon.
