“ Theres too many memories to pick just one that sums up the great years both Gary and Lila gave me and the guys. Those years spent are some of my fondest memories. I wish I had taken the time to see you before these circumstances arose. You both are very dear to me and i never stop looking back at the times you opened your home to me, the charity you displayed, and the kindness i recieved from both of you. You gave and never asked for compensation. And for that I'm truly thankful for you. I still hear the lyrics of "down the road", which Lila wrote herself, in my head. She will be dearly missed.

“ Lila was the sweetest most caring person. Even when she herself was so sick she always wanted to do something for you if you were ill. She loved her family and her pets beyond measure. She will be sadly missed by all who knew her.
