“ I remember so many good times with Linda from our high school days -- sleepovers at her house, making Chef Boyardee pizzas and using scissors to cut the pepperoni. It didn't come already sliced in those days. There was a hurried trip to Cambridge City and back once when she dented the oil pan on her parents' car as we flew over one of those bumps in the road. There were those times, when we got lots of snow, and it was like looking at a moving antique postcard as the Conder horse-drawn sled went zipping down the street. I also remember those early days at I.U. when she was dating Dave and so much in love. My memories of her and our times together go on and on and on. The above are just a few of the special ones.

Linda and started out as next door neighbors North Washington Street, I think we were four on five years old.

What a wonderful start in life living next door to the Conder's!

Linda I got along pretty good and were best buddies, until one I made Linda very upset,

She through off her Properly, telling me "Don't every step on my Properly ever again"

I can still hear her Mom laughing when Linda told Phid about what she had told me.

I The later on after we had mended out friendship, Linda helped turn over a barrel of fuel oil someone had left in our front yard. This killed all our grass in one side of our yard, need to say we were the talk of the neighborhood.

We didn't win the Annual Hagertown Home Owners Award.

Oh yes, around this time Linda cut a bunch of our Tulips in our front yard, she trimming them very very short. She brought her beautiful bouquet to the front presenting them to my Mom.

What wonderful memories.

Linda, May God Bless and Keep You.

Please Tell Your Grand Mother GaGa, Phid, Dick, David and Jeffrey Hi for me,

Love You, gayle bond
