“ Dear Jill and Jane,
So sorry about mother. I would loved to have seen both of you and meet your families on Monday, but we were out of state.

It was fun just now to look at all your pictures and video online and pick out the two of you and your parents. Remember when we were neighbors on Plum and Washington? Perhaps Joan would tell you when I would drop in to visit with her briefly when we were in Richmond. I think I met Jane there once. Joan was lucky that she lived so close.

Jill....did you get to visit with any of your classmates while here? Are some of them planning your 40th reunion for August? Mike missed his last year, as no one let him know. Our Jill is so hoping that she can be here from MN for Jubilee.

Vicky works downtown here in Cambridge City, so I see her now and then. Beth is the librarian at Centerville and we keep in touch. Her mother just died at 98 at Friends Fellowship and her dad is still living there. Maybe you know that your classmate Mariellen Bell Miller died on Jan. 14 of cancer at the young age of only 57.

Thinking of you both in the days ahead.

Christian sympathy,

Phyllis Mattheis
