“ I was a neighbor of Violet for many years. During conversation she always had kind things to say about the folks in Hagerstown. After living most of my adult life in Indianapolis, I have come to miss folks like Violet and the small town friendships that come in and out of one's life. Now Elmer and Violet can get reacquainted

I have such fond memories of Aunt Violet when I would come to Hagerstown in the summers. I always stayed for a few days with your family and she always made me feel warm and welcome. I remember her as very sweet and loving.
