“ Our deepest sympathy to you Uncle Russell and your lovely family at this time of sorrow. We know how truly special family was to Aunt Margaret, and she deeply loved each and every one of us. May our prayers bring you comfort in this your hour of need, and may you always know that we will miss her smile and the interest of life that she always seemed to have in her eyes. She was one of the greatest. We are sorry that we are not able to be with you at this difficult time due to a prior commitment. But please know that we are with you in thoughts and prayers. We will truly miss her.
