“ Mark I remember all of the great times you and Fred and I had!! Never knew who you might bring to my house for Christmas but I always was happy to see you. You and Fred did some crazy things and I loved you like a brother. I wish you peace and I wish that we had not been so distanced in the past few years. 😞. God bless your daughter and her future. I love you man!

“ I first met Mark in kindergarten and we grew up together in Hagerstown. Eventually we both moved away but when I came back to a class reunion he was the guy I reminisced with because we had so much in common. Farewell to an old classmate and good friend. I am sure you will be missed.
