“ I will always remember my dad after being in his life for almost 14 years. He always had such a serious face and use to scare me lol but the more I got to know him over time I knew it was just who he was. Dad loved his grand kids very much and they meant everything to him. His love for fishing was the way he had time to get away and just enjoy the peace and quiet. I'll never forget the times when we all went canoeing, even though we didn't have the chance to do it recently, those were still some great memories we all shared together. He always loved coming up behind you and trying to scare the crap out of you when you weren't paying attention. lol There were so many times he got me when I wasn't paying attention. Dad we love and miss you very much!
