“ As a member of the team from SpiritCare Ministry to Seniors, I visited a few times a month to the care home where Martha Jean lived out her last days. She was special to me, not only because we shared a name, but she often noticed details about me and would comment on a piece of jewelry or clothing, reaching out to gently touch the item. She commented on how sure she was that her sons or sister, Rita would call her, “today”. I loved visiting with her. May she rest In peace.

“ Jean and Vernon were neighbors when I lived in Hagerstown on Tidewater. I always enjoyed talking with Jean. Sincere sympathy to the family, especially her sister, Rita, with whom I taught many years ago in the Western Wayne Schools. Blessings of peace and comfort.
