“ I remember when I was little I was forever rolling my eyes.. and you told me that one day you were gonna hit me on the back when I was doing it and my eyes were gonna get stuck in my head... I thought that for the longest that it was actually possible. I sometimes still roll my eyes though.. :P ,

“ I remember when I was little (only 4) and living there in Indiana. There was this little girl that my mom used to babysit and she would always bite me. Well one day mom and I were over your house and you noticed the bite. You asked me what happened and I told you about the girl biting me. You looked at me and said... the next time that little girl bites you you ball up your fist and you sock her right in the nose. Well.... the next time that girl bit me I did exactly what you said, made her bleed and all, and guess what... she never bit me again.. :P You were so AWESOME!!! ,

The late nights we would talk, and you never thought for a minute that it was to late or you had anything else to do. “ Aunt Mary, I miss you so much. It hurts more each day. You were the one who was always there for me. Always telling me that I could do it. Telling me to be strong. I was always so excited to tell you when something great happened in my life cause you were just as excited for me as you would have been for yourself. Im gonna miss all your emails and phone calls. Im gonna miss you calling me baby girl. I always felt so special when I talked to you. You were so special to me and mom. I loved seeing you guys together. It was like to peas in a pod. You were her other half. I know that you are watching me from Heaven I only hope that I can make you proud of me. I have the little porcelain doll you gave me for christmas sitting in my truck on my dash. Watching over me all the time. I love you Aunt Mary..,

“ Mom you always made the holidays exciting. I remember helping with the Christmas tree and putting up all the decorations that hung from the ceiling. I remember coloring easter eggs with old fashioned food coloring. I remember you getting up so early to get the turkey started. Christmas was your favorite holiday. Singing happy B-day to Jesus.Love you mom,

“ Mom I already miss you. I will never forget the unconditional love you gave me. You always had time for me and never made me feel as if I was bothering you. You gave me confidence when I had little. You gave me encouragement when I needed it. You helped me thru so much. Not only were you a great Mom but an even better Grandma. Hannah and Trey will miss you. You spoiled them. Did what ever they wanted, color, read, watch silly movies, or just play in the back yard. None of us could ever question how much you loved us. I love you MomMom it has been 1 year now. It seems like yesterday I was talking to you on my way home. Hannah and Trey miss you so much. You would be so proud of them and how they are growing up. Mom I love you and I miss you. The emptyness I feel is almost over bearing at times. I have such a void. I dont tell anyone how I am feeling much. You were the one I came to for that kind of stuff. I know you are watching and I see you all over. I love you Mom. Talk to again soon. ,
