

Mary E. Welliver

December 20, 1949 - March 22, 2017

Mary Elizabeth Welliver, 67, of Hagerstown, died unexpectedly on Wednesday, March 22, 2017

She was born in Richmond on December 20, 1949 to Guy M. and Bette F. (Lines) Welliver and lived most of her life in the Hagerstown area.

She was a 1967 graduate of Hagerstown High School and a 1971 graduate of Ball State University. She was the first female court bailiff in Wayne County. She also served as court reporter for Wayne County Superior Court I. She also worked as executive secretary to the Indiana State Public Defender. In the early 1980s, Mary returned to work in the family business, Welliver's Restaurant, where she remained until 2010.

Mary was a devoted animal lover and most enjoyed time with her family, particularly her sisters and her nieces and nephews.

Survivors include two sisters, Margaret Purvis and Janie Welliver; nieces and nephew, Aimee Foust, Jennifer Grose, Stephanie Roman, Elizabeth Bryant, Brooke Rader, Elizabeth Alvarez and Aaron Webb; several great nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a great-nephew,

Davis Foust.

There will be a celebration of Mary's life at Dave's Café, 581 E. Main St., Hagerstown, on Friday, March 31, from 5 to 8 PM.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that memorials be made to Help the Animals, Inc., 2101 W. Main St., Richmond, IN 47374.

While I didn't know Mary well she was very friendly and attractive. Her love of animals was so admirable. A very lovely lady. Bless her.
