“ Myra worked next door at the Golay office. We would chat sometimes, and after work she would give me rides to Hagerstown when I needed them. After retirement, she joined the Woman's History Club in January 1985 and hosted meetings in her lovely home on Hartley Hills Drive. She was always cheerful and fun to be with. She must have enjoyed those ten great grandchildren. Our sincere sympathy to all the family.

“ I worked with Myra at what was Second National Bank and we shared the same birthday. She was such a good listener and gave great advice. John took our wedding pictures and we enjoyed visiting with them through the years. Our thoughts and prayer are with her boys and their family's. God bless you all in your time of sorrow.

“ We first meet Myra and family when we moved to Boston in 1960. She was a wonderful lady. When she and John moved to Hagerstown we bought the house they were living in. Theirs in Hagerstown wasn't ready yet so they rented their house from us for a few months till they could move. Hate to say we lost contact with them after their move but we never forgot them. God be with you at this time of sorrow. She will be missed by family and friends.
