

O. Pauline Blankenship

August 6, 1938 - November 30, 2018

On Friday evening, November 30, 2018, following a well-lived life, Olive Pauline Blankenship left this earthly plane.

The daughter of William Edward and Anna Florence Dewitt Little, she was born in Rowan County Kentucky on August 6, 1938. She lived many places during the first sixteen years of life, and in addition to Hagerstown where she had resided for over sixty years; she considered both Morehead Kentucky and Seaman, Ohio, "home".

She married the love of her life, John Frank Blankenship on June 8, 1955. The couple made Wayne County, Indiana their home and enjoyed 61 years of marriage before John's passing in 2016.

Pauline was a member of The First Southern Baptist Church in Hagerstown and was baptized in 1964.

She was an avid bowler when the Tiger Bowl was opened. She studied upholstery and cake decorating and included those in her many accomplishments. She is remembered by many as one of the finest bakers of bread, rolls and cinnamon bread at Guy Welliver's Smorgasbord and as a clerk at Renaker's 5 & 10 Store. She enjoyed her work in retail at Murphy's Mart and JoAnn Fabrics in New Castle.

Pauline was a wife, a mommy, a homemaker, a daughter, sister and friend to many. Her smile lit up the room and her hugs were beyond compare. She worked in retail for many years and enjoyed crafting; having made many quilts through the years and was especially fond of doll making and an embroidered quilt of all fifty states she made for her love, John to celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary. She spent several years as caregiver to her husband, John.

Pauline loved to garden both vegetables and flowers, canning and preserving food for her family. She loved the outdoors and enjoyed fishing, especially once the couple moved to “the farm” from town many years ago. She baby sat for many children throughout the years and while the couple had four biological children, many, many others were loved and nurtured by Mammy, as she will always be known by her grandchildren. Her love and influence will live on.

Besides her husband and her parents, Pauline was predeceased by stepmother, Edna Little, two sisters, Lula Estle and Bonnie Little, her in-laws, Jesse and Katherine Blankenship, nephews Carl Little, Kenny Conner Jeff McIntire and Brian Wylie, brother in laws, Gilbert McIntire, William Hamm, Norman Robertson and Hobart Crouch, sister in law, Mary Sue Robertson, her daughter Lois Collins, and four grandchildren, Mark Aaron Richardson, Kellie Marie, Shawn David and Troy Alan Collins.
