“ Omar was like a second father to me growing up. Spent a lot of time at the Dumford house and Omar and my Dad got along great. They talked for hours about Hagerstown, the War, Perfect Circle and the "good old days". Omar was a kind and thoughtful man, soft spoken and ever the gentleman. I will miss him dearly

“ I love seeing all the pictures. Omar came into my life back in the 1960's. . He always teased David telling him "Well, I guess you fooled around and fell in love". I remember him as always being sweet and kind. Some of my best memories of him were his weekly visits to the house and taking Tracy and I for a coke or an ice cream cone. I always enjoyed his stories about his travels. Some of my favorite pictures were of the grandkids waiting at the door, looking for Santa when we went to Omar and Bette's for Christmas. So sorry for the family's loss. They were very lucky to have him for 97 years!
Sending my love to all of you.
