“ I've known Bob all my life. My parents were good friends with Ellis and Flora. As kids, I remember us playing together when his folks lived south of the RR tracks on Jacksonburg Road. As an adult, I saw him often when he managed the Walnut Level elevator. Later on, we would just run into each other here and there. I always enjoyed talking to him and catching up. Prayers for his family. Mark Schlegel

“ Lisa and I are so sorry to hear of Bob's passing. We both loved him and Roxanne, and they were two of our favorite people at Orrville Christian. I had the privilege to not only work with Bob, but to be a brother in Christ with him. He was always welcoming to visitors at church, not just as a greeter, but as a human being. Bob was first-class and our thoughts and prayers are with your entire family. See you again Bob!

“ Bob was my cousin. He was an inspiration to Nanci and I. He had overwhelming health issues but had such a positive spirit. He ministered to others just by being Bob. We will miss him very much.
