“ I met Rosalie at the nursing home several years ago while visiting some members of our church. While I am saddened by her loss, I know that she was ready to go. When I last visited with her on February 16, she expressed her concern about my scheduled knee replacement surgery which was to take place on Feb. 25, adding in her unique way that my husband and I needed to move away from this home of nearly 60 years to a place without stairs. Always with a "stern twinkle" in her eyes came her advice! How we enjoyed sparing with one another about so many things. How she loved those classic movies and the times when I shared old familiar hymns with her! Sometimes, she even sang with me.

Yes, indeed, I will miss those special times. Was she a character?
Yes, indeed, but a lovable one who brightened my days as well.

God be with you 'til we meet again, my dear friend Rosalie, at Jesus' feet.

May God comfort you, her family, as only He can.

My love is with you in Christ Jesus.
