“ Susi-Was thinking of you today as I came across pictures of you and Derek. It breaks me to know the pain, grief, and the images of his last hours here with those that love him most. I know its hard to accept but know that God has a plan for you and everyone else that Derek's life touched.

I know your daily struggles, pray for you to heal and to accept that though he is gone, he is always with us all.

Love you and I am always here for you.

“ What an amazing child you were when you came into our world, It seems only moments that you stayed with us a young man. But what an imprint your footprints have left upon our hearts. Words seem inadequate to express the sadness felt by Dereks death. Wishing loved ones peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your hearts.,

“ This week we lost a mom's only child, a fathers son, a dad, a friend, a companion, a veteran, a person that will truly be missed by all the people he has touched in his life. You have a great circle of friends, family, military brothers. Sunday we will celebrate his life and see him off to the next chapter in which God will keep him safe from harm. Derek Ramsey, my step son, we will miss you. We love you and someday we will meet again.,

“ Derek came into my life 12 years ago when I met David. He accepted me and my children from day one. He was the greatest stepson that anyone could ask for. I did not think of him as a stepson, I thought of him as a son. I loved him dearly and will miss him being here everyday to tease and pick on me about something. He was a lot like his father, he didn't know a stranger, and would do anything for anyone. We lost a wonderful young man on Wednesday, and he will be missed deeply but never forgotten. I love you Derek.,
