“ Janet There are no words that can relieve the pain and sufferering you are experiencing, but I wanted to offer my sincere sympathy to you and your family. Many people are keeping you in their prayers. You have our support to help you through this very difficult time.,

“ Catey, My heart cry's for you, but I also know that my God will give you peace, grace, mercy and strength. I will be praying for you, the children and Ryan's family. It is not to our understanding why we may go thru so much pain and sorrow, but God puts people in our lives to give us the best gifts of all. The gift of love that is the most precious treasure anyone could have. It will never leave you and is what memories are all about. Your children have been blessed to have you as a mother that will show them that even during hard times, that your and God's love will always prevail. Know that I love you as well and my family and so many others. Call anytime my door is always open sweet dear. May God cover and keep you. Love Kim Whalen,
