“ I have known Sarah for the majority of time she spent working at CHUBB (INA-CIGNA-ACE Insurance Co). She always had a smile on her face for you. Her face would always brighten when she talked of her son Jonathan and then when she became a GRANDMA, she was in sevehth heaven. She will be missed by those who lives she touched!

“ Sarah and Jim were wonderful next door neighbors during our years in Hagerstown. We enjoyed a lot of Friday nights eating pizza and playing euchre. She has been a wonderful friend over the past forty years and will be missed.
