

Sheryl A. Wesley

August 29, 1946 - December 4, 2023

With heavy hearts but grateful spirits, we celebrate the life of an extraordinary woman, Sheryl Wesley, who has transitioned to her heavenly home at the age of 77. Her life was a testament to unwavering faith, boundless love, and the profound joy found in family.

For six decades, she walked hand in hand with her beloved husband, Gerald Wesley Senior, creating a love story that stood the test of time—a testament to enduring commitment and companionship.

Sheryl was a shining example of devotion to her faith, finding solace and strength in her religious beliefs. Gospel music was more than melodies to her; it was a reflection of her deep spiritual connection, a source of comfort and inspiration.

As the nurturing heart of her family, she leaves behind a legacy of love that spans generations. Her three sons, eight grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren were the apples of her eye, each one cherished and adored. Her love and guidance shaped their lives in immeasurable ways, leaving an indelible mark on their hearts.

While we mourn her physical absence, we find peace in knowing that she has reunited with her dear brothers, Mark and Steve, and her loving parents,

Leonard and Dorothea Swingle, in the embrace of heavenly tranquility.

Sheryl's spirit remains with us, a guiding light of love and faith. As we honor her memory, may we carry forth the lessons of compassion, faith, and togetherness that she so beautifully exemplified.

In her honor, Sheryl's living family members include her beloved husband, Gerald Senior, her sister, Sheila Bougher, her three devoted sons, Jerry (Kim), Jim (Debra), Joe (Lisa), her cherished grandchildren Broc, Jessica (Jase), Shauna, Mindy, Laura (Gary), Cole (Amiyah), Wyatt (Emma Cool), Eli and her adored great-grandchildren Blakeleigh, Jeremiah, Jase, Emmaleigha, Avery, Hudson, Dexter, Addalynn. Their lives are a testament to the love she sowed and nurtured throughout her lifetime.

We find solace in the belief that she is now resting in eternal peace, surrounded by heavenly melodies, and embraced by the divine love she cherished. Her legacy of love and devotion will continue to resonate in the hearts of all who had the privilege of knowing her.
