“ My heart is heavy this morning as I lift up Gene's loved ones in prayer. May God surround you with comfort and peace as you treasure the wonderful memories shared. Gene, I always thought you were a special person and you have a soft spot in my heart. Thank you for everything you did for the church and for the children. I'll always remember you taking me on a personal tour of Economy after I moved in and even showing off everything in the shop. Ryan and I will both remember spending the day together with you making cider and then taking us out to eat afterwards. Your smile is one I will miss every Sunday. I am blessed to have had you in my church family.,

“ Hi Leora & Jeff, I am saddened by the loss of your husband & father. I admired his community and youth involvement. He and I had our differences. But I hope,he had no hard feelings. Having grown up in Economy, I had known him for years and always considered him a friend. I'm sure he and my grandpa, Charles Conwell, are catching up on old times. He always liked Gene. I hope you find this poem comforting. THE ROSE STILL BLOOMS A Rose once grew where all could see Sheltered beside a garden wall and,as the days passed swiftly by. It spread its branches, straight and tall. One day,a beam of light shone through. A crevice that had opened wide. The rose bent gently towards its warmth Then passed beyond to the other side. Now,you who deeply feel it's loss. Be comforted--the rose blooms there. Its beauty even greater now Nurtured by Gods own loving care. “ He led the youth group at Economy Methodist Church in the 1970's when my brother, sisters, and I were there. He inspired me to look at God through light-hearted eyes. You don't have to be a serious person to have a serious relationship with Jesus. A picture of the "Laughing Jesus" is in my office today because of Gene and others like him. I pray that he will be remembered by the life he lived.,

“ Gene will always be in our hearts and memories. He taught us so much and was respected and admired by not only our family but by many others' as well. He always seemed to put others first and loved helping everyone and making everyone else smile, not to mention he always had a smile on his face too. There are so many great memories with Gene, and we all know he will be loved and missed by many. The Steelman family,

“ Dear Leora, I am so sorry to hear about Gene's passing away. Just remember to be absent from this Life is to be present with the Lord. He is happy today, but I know you will miss him. Losing your life-time partner can be an awful thing. In case you do not remember me, I worked security at Reid Hospital and I always enjoyed see you. Billy Isaacs,,
